

UN Women, University of Edinburgh's Political Settlements Research Programme (PSRP), Monash Gender, Peace and Security Centre and InclusivePeace have the pleasure to invite you to Making inclusive peace a reality:

VIRTUAL LAUNCH OF THE PEACEFEM MOBILE APP

on 30 June 2020, from 3PM to 4.30PM Beirut time/ 8AM to 9.30AM New-York time/ 1PM to 2.30PM UK time/ 2PM to 3.30PM CET.

The webinar will be held in English and Arabic with simultaneous translation.

A contribution to the growing field of peace tech that utilizes technology to achieve peace and security, PeaceFem brings together available data on women and peacemaking in one easy-to-use app in English and Arabic. Intended for use by women's rights advocates, mediation and negotiation teams, as well as other actors working in peace and security, the app contains strategies that have been employed to influence peace processes as well as the resulting gender-language provisions and data on their implementation. Covering 30 peace agreements across 19 peace processes so far, the app will be available in the coming days on Apple and Play stores.

The launch will be the occasion for participants to discover the app and its functioning, and to discuss peacemaking and technology as a tool for inclusivity.
